

Unpublished Poetry Chapbook Preliminary Judging Submission Guidelines

Deadline for Poetry Chapbook Submissions: December 31, 2016

A poetry chapbook is a 10-page collection of poetry by one writer. Chapbooks authors may have had individual poems published, but the collection of poems in the submitted chapbook must be unpublished.

We start accepting unpublished submissions October 1, 2016.

Writers may submit more than one chapbook, but a separate submission fee and entry form must accompany each entry. The unpublished poetry chapbook contest is open to San Diego County residents only. All submissions remain the literary property of the writer. Incomplete entries or entries received after the deadline will not be judged. Submissions received with postage due will be discarded and not judged.

Entry fee for each poetry chapbook submitted is $15.00.

Chapbooks submitted for the San Diego Book Awards unpublished poetry chapbook category must follow these guidelines:

- * Must include no more than 10 poems.
- * Be original.
- * Submissions must be unpublished as a collection, but individual poems may have been previously published.
- * Three copies of the chapbook submitted.
- * One cover page. The cover page should have the title of the work, the title of poems, the writer's name, address, phone number, and email address.
- * The writer's name and contact information may not appear anywhere but on the cover page and entry form.

Unpublished Poetry Chapbook Preliminary Judging Submission Guidelines

- * Self-addressed stamped envelope (SASE) large enough and with sufficient postage for return of judges' comments and chapbooks. If the SASE is not included, entry will be discarded after judging is completed.
- * Completed and signed entry form and payment for each entry must be included.

Manuscript preparation guidelines:

- * Standard Word margins - 1" top and bottom, 1 1/4" each side. Single-space between all lines. Only one double space between stanzas..
